

Ever since the de-regulation of the airwaves in the 1980's, I have watched with dismay the rise of shock jocks, the coarsening of our public discourse, and the domination of the airwaves by big money. You have taken steps to rein in the shock jocks-- Bubba the Love Sponge in our area-- and now I ask you to rein in those who abuse the public trust politically.

I ask that you do not renew Sinclair's license and allow it to be taken by someone who respects freedom and the public trust.
